Brattle performed its professional services in an expedient and efficient manner. Compensation for the foregoing services as requested is commensurate with the complexity, importance, and time-sensitive nature of the issues and tasks involved.

16. To provide an orderly and meaningful summary of the services rendered by Brattle, Brattle established, in accordance with the Guidelines, separate task costs. During the Compensation Period, Brattle expended 32.7 hours assisting Proskauer on matters relating to the Commonwealth’s Fiscal Plan; PREPA Title III Proceeding; and Title III Proceedings - General Assistance to Counsel and in preparing its First Interim Fee Application. Actual and Necessary Expenses of Brattle

17. Brattle did not incur any reimbursable expenses during the Compensation Period.

Compensation Paid and its Source

18. All services for which Brattle seeks compensation were performed on behalf of and at the direction of Proskauer, as legal counsel to the Oversight Board, representative of the Debtors in their Title III Cases. In connection with the request covered by this Application, Brattle has received no payment and has received no promises of payment for services rendered, or to be rendered, from any source other than the Debtors. There is no agreement or understanding between Brattle and any other person for the sharing of compensation received for services rendered to Proskauer in the Debtors' Title III cases.

19. PROMESA sections 316 and 317 provide for interim compensation of professionals and govern this Court's award of such compensation. PROMESA section 316 provides that a court may award a professional employed for the benefit of the Debtor or the Oversight Board under PROMESA "reasonable compensation for actual, necessary services rendered . . . and reimbursement for actual, necessary expenses.” PROMESA § 316(a).

PROMESA section 316 also sets forth the criteria for awarding compensation and reimbursement:

In determining the amount of reasonable compensation to be awarded . . . the court shall consider the nature, the extent, and the value of such services, taking into account all relevant factors, including –

- (1) the time spent on such services;
- (2) the rates charged for such services;
- (3) whether the services were necessary to the administration of, or beneficial at the time at which the service was rendered toward the completion of, a case under this chapter;
- (4) whether the services were performed within a reasonable amount of time commensurate with the complexity, importance, and nature of the problem, issue, or task addressed;
- (5) with respect to a professional person, whether the person is board certified or otherwise has demonstrated skill and experience in the bankruptcy field;
and
- (6) whether the compensation is reasonable based on the customary compensation charged by comparably skilled practitioners in cases other than cases under this subchapter or title 11.

PROMESA § 316(c).

20. Brattle respectfully submits that the professional services rendered during the Compensation Period were necessary for and beneficial to Proskauer’s effective representation of the Oversight Board and therefore were necessary for and beneficial to the maximization of value for all stakeholders and ultimately to the orderly administration of the Debtors’ Title III Cases. The services required experienced professionals with specialized expertise to timely and thoroughly respond to Proskauer’s requests. During the Compensation Period, Brattle worked efficiently, under time constraints, to respond to Proskauer’s needs.

21. The rates of the Brattle personnel performing the services are the rates Brattle charges for professional services rendered in comparable bankruptcy and non-bankruptcy matters, and are reasonable given the customary rates charged by comparably skilled practitioners in comparable bankruptcy and non-bankruptcy cases in a competitive national market.

22. The fees for which allowance is requested reflect that Brattle has performed 15% of the services on a pro bono basis.

23. Brattle submits that allowance of the fees and expenses requested herein is reasonable and warranted in light of the nature, extent and value of Brattle's services to the Proskauer, as legal counsel to the Oversight Board, as representative of the Debtors in the Title III Cases. Proskauer has reviewed and approved this Application.

No Previous Request

24. No previous request for the relief sought herein has been made by Brattle to this or any other court.

Reservations

25. To the extent time or disbursement charges for services rendered or expenses incurred relate to the Compensation Period but were not processed prior to the preparation of this Application, or Brattle has for any other reason not yet sought compensation or reimbursement of expenses herein with respect to any services rendered or expenses incurred during the Compensation Period, Brattle reserves the right to request compensation for such services and reimbursement of such expenses in a future application.
